

FontBundles.net Premium License

The Fontbundles.net premium license gives you the right to use any fonts purchased as part of a bundle in a personal or commercial project for yourself or a client - the item cannot be resold or redistributed on its own, or distributed as part of a product where the font is considered to add to the value of the total product. All of our designers have agreed to the license and by purchasing our products you also agree to the license terms.

Here's what is allowed with fonts purchased as part of a bundle from Fontbundles.net:

- ✓ Fonts may be used in multiple projects
- ✓ Fonts may be used in work for yourself or a client
- ✓ Fonts may be used in print material which is then sold
- ✗ Fonts may not be re-distributed for free or paid
- ✗ Digital font files may not be included in products for sale

We have created some example use cases to help you find out what you can do with fonts from a Fontbundles.net bundle:

- ✓ Any Cricut products for yourself or to be sold to other people
- ✓ Using font in products such as shirt designs for yourself or to be sold to other people
- ✓ Using font in other printed designs (posters, books) which can be sold to other people
- ✓ Using web-enabled fonts in website projects where the files are not distributed for free or paid
- ✓ Including font in compiled software which can be sold to end users (e.g. iOS apps)
- ✗ Selling a digital design to other users which directly includes the font files used in the project
- ✗ Distributing font uncompiled in software
- ✗ Selling software or products including the font, which can then be installed and used by the end-user

If you are in any doubt over how our fonts or other products can be used please email sales@fontbundles.net for assistance.
